

THE LEADER IN YOU

19TH MARCH 2020, BUCHAREST

ABOUT THE INNER WORLD OF A LEADER

There is no script for being a great leader, and no way to play act in the role. It's the inner work that creates the difference between a manager and a leader.

Leaders who shine have the insight to examine their own lives--the influence of their families, the guidance of life models, and the force of momentous events--and translate that information into habits of mind for persevering in the face of obstacles and instilling commitment and confidence in others.
